The National Partnership for Student Success

The NPSS is a public private partnership led by the U.S. Department of Education, AmeriCorps, and the Johns Hopkins Everyone Graduates Center that seeks to provide the leadership, organizational structures, and connective tissue to bring additional evidence-based person-powered student supports to schools and districts based on locally determined needs.

Local determination of student needs and collaboration

Menu of evidence-based supports to meet student needs

Getting the right support to the right students at the right scale and intensity

A Network of Networks

The NPS presently counts over 90 nationally-recognized education and youth-serving organizations as supporting champions.
